

Phillip Krum will begin his sixth season at Andrew College and third as Head Baseball Coach. Krum is a 2000 graduate of Azusa Pacific University with a B.S. in Social Science. A native of Stockton, CA, Krum joined the staff after spending the 2004-2005 season at NCAA Division III participant Ohio Northern University. At Northern Krum served as recruiting coordinator, infield coach, and head junior varsity coach.

Krum is a graduate of Bear Creek High School in Stockton, CA where he lettered in baseball, football, basketball, and soccer. Krum signed to play at NAIA participant Biola University out of high school, where he spent one season. Krum also spent a year at San Joaquin Delta College. After completion of his undergraduate degree at Azusa Pacific University, Krum went on to teach and coach at the high school level. Krum completed his M.S. in Physical Education in 2004 also at Azusa Pacific University while he was still coaching at Pasadena City College.

Phillip has a total of ten years of coaching experience, four at the high school level, and six years at the college level. Most notably Krum served as the head varsity baseball coach at Western Christian High School in Covina, CA where he led the Lancers to their third consecutive playoff appearance. Krum also spent two years at Pasadena City College prior to his stint at Ohio Northern University. Coach Krum also serves as an instructor in the Andrew College Physical Education department and heads the Sports Management program.

Coach Krum was married to the former Amber McDougal on December 18, 2004. Phil and his wife make their home in Cuthbert, GA and enjoy golf, going to the movies, and cooking.
