

Andrew College – A Night in Atlanta

On January 31, friends and alumni of Andrew College gathered in Atlanta for a night of good food and fellowship, and to hear from Andrew College president, Dr. David Seyle. The evening was sponsored by Penta Engineering and Axis Remedial Services, and was hosted by Andrew College Trustees, Suzanne Nieman and Kay Aderhold of Atlanta. The evening began with a social time at Pitty Pat's Porch followed by a wonderful southern style dinner.

Abbott Turner, Trustee from Columbus, thanked everyone for attending and introduced Dr. Seyle who addressed the group and spoke about his vision for Andrew. After dinner, the group was entertained by attending a performance of "Swamp Gravy" at the Rialto Theater. Swamp Gravy has been named at the official folk life play of Georgia and originated in Colquitt, Georgia.

Those attending included Dr. David and Claudia Seyle, Dr. Joree Jones, Mr. Bryan Helms, Ms. Rebecca White, Mr. & Mrs. Tom Rhodes, Mr. & Mrs. Tom Aderhold, Mr. & Mrs. Charles Nieman, Mr. John Sikes, Ms. Dana McGraw, Ms. Kaye Joiner, Mr. & Mrs. Rick Welch, Mr. & Mrs. Gordon Reynolds, Mr. & Mrs. Abbott Turner, Brooke Turner, Mr. & Mrs. Malon Wickham, Ms. Kathy King, Mr. & Mrs. Stephen Callaghan, Mr. Chuck Collins, Mr. & Mrs. Charles King, Mr. & Mrs. Jim Hendry, Mr. & Mrs. Richard Taylor.
