

The Jack Kent Cooke Foundation has awarded their annual scholarships for 2009. Ms. Neida Soto, a graduating sophomore from Andrew College, will receive a Jack Kent Cooke Foundation Undergraduate Transfer Scholarship. The scholarship will provide tuition and a stipend beginning in the fall of 2009, Neida will use this as she transfers to Warren Wilson College in Asheville, NC to complete her degree in green chemistry.

Neida received the Goizueta Foundation Scholarship, awarded to Hispanic and Latino students, while attending Andrew College. During her time at Andrew, Neida has been involved in several different aspects of the campus. To name a few: she was the Public Relations Officer for Phi Theta Kappa; she was also named to the All-Georgia Academic Team. Neida was a two-year starter on our women's soccer team; she played goalkeeper both years. She received the highest award that the athletic department gives, "The Tiger" at Honor's night. Ms. Soto is one of 30 Scholars selected from among 485 nominees. She has demonstrated outstanding records of achievement, not only academically, but also in service, leadership and community involvement.
