

Fourteen new members were inducted into the Theta Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa at Andrew College last Monday, February 2nd. The new members included Michael A. Bryan, Brittany Ellington, Tempa Fuller, Alan Gilbert, James Hobbs, Tonya Horne, Jennifer Jackson, Vanessa Jackson, Rachel Knight, Courtney Milliron, Krista Posey, Keyla Reyes, Amber White and Jemiya Wright. Other eligible new members include Kera Boyd, Josh Carr, Sujata Kandel, and Brittany Lawrence.

Ms. Bridget Kurkowski, Director of Admission, presented a program on the Study Topic, The Paradox of Affluence: Choices, Challenges and Consequences. She spoke to the students regarding their futures and their destinies.

After Ms. Kurkowski's presentation, Theta Lambda officers Julie Bentley, President; Keri Cadle, Vice-President, and Neida Soto, Public Relations Officer, conducted the Induction Ceremony. Karan B. Pittman, Director of Library Services and co-advisor of Theta Lambda, spoke briefly to the members. Elaine Bush, Assistant Professor of Biology and co-advisor, hosted the reception following the ceremony.

Phi Theta Kappa is the largest honorary society for two year colleges in the nation with over two million members. Approximately 1200 chapters have been chartered within the United States and United States territories. Over 100,000 members are inducted annually.

PICTURE: Spring Inductees to the Theta Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa are left to right, Jemiya Wright, Jennifer Jackson, Vanessa Jackson, Keyla Reyes, Amber White, Brittany Ellington, Tempa Fuller, Tonya Horne, Krista Posey, Alan Gilbert, Rachel Knight and Courtney Milliron.