Andrew College hosts Organizational Fair

CUTHBERT, GA. – Students turned out on the first day of classes on Tuesday, August 16 to learn about the many clubs and organizations they could participate in while at Andrew College. Pictured is Visual Art Professor Chris Johnson and student, Candice Baker, Jonesboro, discussing the fun activities that the art club has to offer. Handmade masks made from recycled cardboard were on display to showcase student artwork from Andrew College's 2015 Homecoming parade and 2015-2016 academic year.

Professor Johnson said, "The Organizational Fair is a great way to inform incoming students of the variety of services and opportunities that Andrew College has to offer. One great thing about Andrew College is the inclusive nature of the clubs, organizations, programs, and the student body at large. It is very inspiring to see students engage with one another and invite others to share their interests."
