Students tour Randolph County Welcome Center

CUTHBERT, GA. – Andrew College business students toured the Randolph County Welcome Center on January 19. Dr. Lisa Singleton, assistant professor for business administration said that she takes her students there each semester in order for them to receive some history of Cuthbert, Georgia and to gain insight on the progression of Randolph County’s economic developments. Pictured with Professor Singleton (second from right) and her students is County Commissioner Jimmy Bradley (far right) who provided history of the diorama. Ms. Patricia Goodman, Randolph County Chamber of Commerce president gave an extensive tour of the Randolph County Welcome Center.
