Cancer Registry Management program receives new status

CUTHBERT, GA. – The Formal Education Program Review Committee of the National Cancer Registrars Association (NCRA) awarded full accreditation status to Andrew College on Sept. 13, 2018 for its Cancer Registry Management certificate program.

NCRA officials said that they appreciate Andrew College's commitment to providing excellent education for cancer registrars and for their support of professionalism in the field.

Andrew College is now listed along with other NCRA accredited cancer registry management certificate programs on the NCRA website (www.ncra-usa.org). The program will also be recognized in NCRA publications for the membership.
