Albany school tours Andrew College

CUTHBERT, GA. – God’s Foundation Christian Academy high school students from Albany toured Andrew College in Cuthbert on March 15. Andy Geeter, vice president of enrollment, welcomed 15 students and school officials to campus and discussed college opportunities and the advantages of choosing Andrew for their college education. Geeter touched on areas such as the college admission process, scholarships, financial aid, college costs, the classroom experience and athletics. He also talked about the exciting new programs of nursing, timber management, cancer information registry and a 4-year business degree that will be starting in the Fall of 2017, pending SACS approval. Andrew Student Ambassadors then took students on a tour and answered questions about campus life.

After lunch in the Turner Dining Hall, students heard from Andrew College professors Amanda Knight and Susan Askew, who spoke with students about various academic topics including general programs of study, nursing and the medical field, study aboard opportunities, tutoring and available academic assistance, faculty expectations and a general overview of academics at the college.
