For Immediate Release

September 15, 2017

Annette & Julian Nichols named Grand Marshals of Andrew College Homecoming Parade

CUTHBERT, GA. – Andrew College has announced that former professors Annette & Julian Nichols, will serve as Grand Marshals of the 2017 Andrew College Homecoming Parade. The parade will be held beginning at 10 a.m. on Saturday, Sept. 30.

Area businesses and organizations are encouraged to participate. Parade entries are still being accepted. Contact Tina Burney, dean of student life, at 229-732-5950 for more information and to sign up.

The parade will begin in front of Patterson Hall on the Andrew College campus, continuing south onto Highland Ave., then turning east (left) onto College Street, proceeding past the front of Andrew College to the downtown Cuthbert square, going around the square. Then the parade will continue back to College St. headed west, turning north (right) onto McDonald Ave., west (left) on Randolph St., and south (left) on Highland Ave., where it will return back to Patterson Hall.

New this year are activities on the square to create a festive atmosphere during the parade. There will be music, food, t-shirts and fun. This is open to the public.

Also, the Andrew College Homecoming court will be presented and the queen and king will be crowned by President Linda Buchanan at a ceremony in the Parker Building Gym on Friday, Sept. 29 at 8:30 p.m.

Andrew College Homecoming includes a variety of activities for students, alumni and friends of the College. A complete schedule of activities for alumni can be found at www.andrewcollege.edu/homecoming. Registration is still open for those events.
