Tom and Kay Aderhold named Grand Marshals of Andrew College Homecoming Parade

CUTHBERT, GA. – Andrew College has announced that alumni Tom '69 and Kay Aderhold '68, will serve as Grand Marshals of the 2018 Andrew College Homecoming Parade which will begin at 10 a.m. on Saturday, October 6.

Due to the generosity of the Aderholds, the new nursing program at Andrew will be able to graduate their first cohort of nurses in the spring of 2019. The Aderholds are also in charge of the 50th alumni reunion class for this year..

Area businesses and organizations are encouraged to participate in the parade. Parade entries are still being accepted. Contact James McCoy, dean of student life, at 229-732-5950 or jamesmccoy@andrewcollege.edu for more information and to sign up.

The parade will begin in front of Patterson Hall on the Andrew College campus, continuing south onto Highland Ave., then turning east (left) onto College Street, proceeding past the front of Andrew College to the downtown Cuthbert square, going around the square. Then the parade will continue back to College St. headed west, turning north (right) onto McDonald Ave., west (left) on Randolph St., and south (left) on Highland Ave., where it will return back to Patterson Hall.

Andrew College Homecoming includes a variety of activities for students, alumni and friends of the College. A complete schedule of activities for alumni can be found at www.andrewcollege.edu/homecoming. Registration is still open for those events.
