Students inducted into Phi Theta Kappa Honor Society

CUTHBERT, GA. –The Andrew College Theta Lambda Chapter of Phi Theta Kappa held its spring semester induction ceremony on Thursday, February 16. Set in the historic Liddie Murphy Theatre in Old Main, thirteen students were inducted into the largest and oldest two-year college honor society in the nation.

Founded in 1918, Phi Theta Kappa recognizes and rewards high-achieving students and provides scholarships for continued studies as well as opportunities to develop such critical leadership skills as problem solving, project planning, team building, effective communication and conflict resolution. Membership is based on superior academic achievement and is conferred by invitation only. There has been a Theta Lambda Chapter at Andrew College since 1953.
