Andrew College retirees and former employees enjoy luncheon

CUTHBERT, GA. — The McDonald House, Andrew College's president's home, served as the host site for a luncheon on June 25 for retirees and former employees. Attendees enjoyed visiting and catching up with others at the annual event.

Before lunch, President Linda Buchanan addressed the group to update all on new programs and future plans for the College. Dan Kolan, assistant professor of music and Deb Liss-Green, assistant professor of theatre, also gave an update on their fine arts programs and plans for bringing the arts to downtown Cuthbert. Lunch was prepared by staff from the Development office.
