Kirk Treible remembered

CUTHBERT, GA. – Through song, prayer, fellowship and humor, Andrew College’s former President Kirk Treible was remembered by over 100 friends, colleagues, community members and family during a Celebration of Life on May 14 in Andrew College’s Jones Chapel.

All who spoke talked of Treible’s generous spirit; his humor; dedication to family, friends and colleagues; and devotion to Andrew College. During his leadership at Andrew, three major campus facilities were developed—Fort Hall, Hord Field and Jones Chapel. A partial remodel of the Ethel McDonald Castellow Building (Old Main), was also undertaken during his 1988-2002 tenure. Treible’s guidance also prepared Andrew for the new millennium with the installation of a campus-wide fiber-optic communication system.

The fellowship continued during lunch at the Turner Dining Hall which was provided by The Cuthbert United Methodist Church, the Cuthbert First Baptist Church and other community individuals.

Treible passed away on January 17 while on a travel vacation in Egypt. He was 76.
