Andrew College held annual Halloween party

CUTHBERT, GA. – Andrew College held their annual faculty and staff Halloween party on October 31. A guitar-playing bear, the Grim Reaper (a.k.a., “They”), a fawn, a barefoot Roman knight in shining armor, cackling witches, Tweedledee and Tweedledum, faculty disguised as college students and costume-free people all came out to enjoy the festivities. Academic departments put on skits and participants vied to be awarded with the best costume or skit prize. Judging the events were Evelyn (class of 1959) and Atlas Hester and Linda Jane Meadows (class of 1968).

The annual Halloween party has grown to be an Andrew College favorite. Sage Dining Services provided a pleasurable feast. The party this year was sponsored by the Office of Academic Affairs and planned and hosted by the Andrew College Social Committee.
