

Andrew College

1854

JOB TITLE: Assistant Professor of Nursing

REPORTS TO: Nursing Program Director

DEPARTMENT: Nursing

START DATE: August 1, 2020

CLASSIFICATION: Full-Time Faculty

SALARY: Negotiable

General Function:

Andrew College is seeking an assistant professor for its two-year Nursing Program. The successful applicant should have a Master's degree in Nursing. Andrew College faculty is expected to understand, promote, and support the mission of the College. Nursing faculty will:

- Provide classroom and clinical instruction for college level nursing courses
- Develop assigned course and clinical syllabi to reflect the School of Nursing philosophy, theoretical constructs, course description, and objectives and curriculum in conjunction with the Nursing Program Director
- Utilize a variety of teaching methods to accommodate the learning styles of students
- Provide opportunities for active student involvement through practice and application
- Model and encourage a collaborative faculty-student relationship
- Advise and mentor students
- Participate in developing programs, evaluating and revising student policies, organizational framework and revising curricular offerings
- Promote and collaborate with intensive academic support programs of the College
- Serve as a collaborative member of College faculty

Minimum Requirements:

Master's degree in Nursing; Current/unencumbered Georgia RN license;

Current healthcare provider CPR/BLS certification

Three to five years teaching experience preferred

Must be authorized for unrestricted employment in the United States indefinitely with no immigration sponsorship needed.

Working Conditions:

Office and classroom environment with minimum lifting (25 pounds) required

Flexible teaching and office hours to include late afternoons, early evenings and clinical setting schedule hours

Applicants should submit a letter of interest, curriculum vitae, unofficial transcripts, and the names and contact information of three references to:

Jennifer Mitchell, Director of Human Resources

hr@andrewcollege.edu

Andrew College—the United Methodist beacon of educational, spiritual, and cultural uplift to Southwest Georgia since 1854—prepares students for lives of servant leadership and purpose through higher education that is relevant to its region and beyond.

Andrew College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, age, creed, national origin, or disability in its employment policies.