

JOB TITLE: Percussion Adjunct Instructor

REPORTS TO: Dean of Academic Affairs

DEPARTMENT: Music

START DATE: Immediately

CLASSIFICATION: Adjunct Faculty

SALARY: TBD

General Function: Provide primary percussion instruction to percussion majors and secondary percussion instruction to non-majors.

Duties and Responsibilities:

- Teach applied percussion lessons to majors and non-majors
- Cover topics such as technique, musicianship, pedagogy, and literature
- Prepare students for juries, recitals, and other program requirements
- Communicate within the department regarding student needs and development
- Maintain accurate records
- Follow the policies and procedures of Andrew College

Minimum Requirements:

A Master's degree in percussion performance, pedagogy, or music education is required. The candidate should have significant experience as a performer, demonstrated capacity as a studio teacher and experience with jazz and commercial music. Must be authorized for unrestricted employment in the United States indefinitely with no immigration sponsorship needed.

Working Conditions: Office and classroom environment with minimum lifting (25 pounds).

Applicants should complete the Quick Application located on Andrew College website for the desired position along with submitting a cover letter, resume, unofficial transcript(s), statement of teaching philosophy & three references with telephone numbers to: www.andrewcollege.edu

Jennifer Mitchell, Director of Human Resources
hr@andrewcollege.edu

Andrew College—the United Methodist beacon of educational, spiritual, and cultural uplift to Southwest Georgia since 1854—prepares students for lives of servant leadership and purpose through higher education that is relevant to its region and beyond.

Andrew College does not discriminate on the basis of race, color, religion, gender, age, creed, national origin, or disability in its employment policies.